"This is my Halloween mask!"

"Tranquility"

This year marks two occasions for us here at George Mason; it is the Bicentennial of our nation, and it is also the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of our school. For these two reasons, we tend to look back at yesterday, because the present is the product of the time spent in the past. And we, the 1976 Mustang staff, hope to provide a memorable record of this celebrated year.

Time; what is it? It seems that we spend so much of it in this building going to school. To what purpose?

We spend our time absorbing what is going on around us.

We made friends when we first entered this building, but after spending six years with the same friends, we part after graduation, going in our own directions. Yet, we always have the memories of the times we spent together in the past.

Here we learn to make judgements, and, by making judgements, we mold ourselves for what we are going to become in the future. For yesterday is today's past, and today will be tomorrow's past. And by what we learn and feel in these passing days, we prepare ourselves for another step in life.

So then, this is to remember . . .

This year an unusual event occurred when the first football practice rolled around; an expansive number of young athletes turned out, more than this school has seen in a long while.

The practices were long and hard, but when the first game came along, those long hot practices paid off with a 28-0 win over Bishop Ireton, who had beaten the Mustangs last year 9-0. Despite the many injuries ranging from minor bruises to broken bones, the Mustangs were able to bring about a 6-4 season and return the lost respect of our football prowess to George Mason.

This year's Freshman Football team was full of great expectations, much enthusiasm, and lots of talent. Though the season did not turn out the way it was hoped, the enthusiasm proved to be of major importance as the Mustangs won the first home game in over ten years by beating Leary 35-0. Looking at the record, the season doesn't seem like a success, but if young athletes like those of this year's season keep coming out, the Mustangs should surely have a winning season in the near future.

Richard ponders on how the last one slipped through.

The 1975 Varsity Soccer team, lead by Coach Harold, had its toughest season ever, facing a schedule of 14 games, all against triple A opponents. As always, the team was crippled by having a small squad with few substitutes. Although the team was small and inexperienced, the help of Mike McCormack on the front line and Billy Killiam in the heart of the defense, gave every team a run for the money.

Although having a rough year, four players were picked for the All Northern Virginia Soccer team. They were - 1st team: Captain, Billy Killiam, and Mike McCormack, leading goal scorer for the Mustangs; 2nd team: first year rookie goalie, Richard Amacher, and the other team captain, Sam Jordan, at fullback.

MOST SPIRITED - Sam Jordan
MOST IMPROVED - Richard Amacher
MOST OUTSTANDING - Bill Killiam

Steve Churchill anxiously awaits the ball.

"What are we posing for . . . Animal Crackers?" wonders Sam Jordan.

The J.V. Soccer team this year was dealt some misfortune. Inexperience was the major difficulty that the Mustangs faced. Being up against the more experienced Triple A, Arlington league proved to give them the needed experience for the coming seasons.

Next year there will not be a fall soccer season. It is being changed to a spring season and we will join a new league with Fairfax County.

BASKETBALL

Warm ups!

Huh?

In a repeat of last year, the girls' varsity basketball team suffered a disappointing loss to Loudoun County in the district tournament and finished in second place for the season.

The season saw continual improvement of all players, with an especially strong contingent of juniors seeing action. Several freshmen made the team and showed promise as future starters.

The team, coached by Mrs. Bradd, found an increasing number of spectators in attendance at the games. The team's overall record was 8-7. Kari Gathercoal and Cindy Holcomb were among those players elected to the All-District Girls' Varsity Basketball team.

Agony of defeat.

There was an addition to the Fall Sports lineup this year. It was a new and challenging season for all those involved. The J.V. team, coached by Mrs. Bradd, had a tough first year, playing against the bigger and more experienced girls in the district.

Having a Junior Varsity team for the girls allowed those with interest and ability to prepare for future play on the Varsity squad.

If I don't sink this, practice tomorrow is going to be . . .

TEAM AWARDS

Most Spirited — Jay Philippsen
Most Improved — John Karnis
Most Outstanding — Tim Kinkead

Although the record doesn't tell it all, the 1975 Cross-Country team showed marked improvement.

The team was small and had many first year participants. Under supervision of Coach Klass, individual achievement was the standard for the team, with all runners improving their times steadily throughout the season.

In the estimation of Tim Kinkead, captain of the team, the high point of the year was the second meet against Loudoun County, when the Mustangs, despite being handicapped with the loss of two top runners, were able to defeat the Raiders.

Tim Kinkead, team captain, moves out.

HOMECOMING '75

Homecoming was a success this year due largely to the hard work and effort of the Homecoming Committee. The Committee started working back in the Spring of '75, preparing work and arranging fund raising activities.

The week was filled with excitement, spirit, a pop concert, sporting events, pep rallies and, of course, last minute preparations, leading to pure exhaustion by the time of the Saturday festivities.

The traditional half-time activities were changed to pre-game ceremonies, including the presentation of the 1975 Homecoming court. The Homecoming Committee elected to include a prince from each of the classes this year.

After a disappointing game, the mad rush began for those going to the dance. The highlight of the evening was Jack Gambill crowning the 1975 Homecoming Queen, Becky Butchert.

The halls are home to you and each room carries a special significance. Going anywhere, from the language wing to the gym, from the shop to the office (where many have donated their share of time), one sees the faces of friends and acquaintances of varying fondness, who form the memories of each day. It has become a way of life, a normal occurrence, and yet it's soon to conclude, never to be recaptured.

Graduates will sever habit and habitat, and the halls will stop being a domicile for your extended family. The faces you pass on the street won't be the faces of the friends you left behind, but the faces of people you have yet to meet. Each step you take will be a new challenge, an obstacle course for you to surmount. And yet, we all eagerly await graduation, and the unknown.

JUNIORS

This year's Junior class participated actively in the extra-curricular school activities, clubs and sports. The Junior class, which was quite small due to early graduating students, still accomplished much. One of their most outstanding achievements was the fact that the starting IT'S ACADEMIC TEAM was made up of Juniors Mills Kelly, Payson Todd, and Philip Lundy. The Junior class President was Benny Price. The class of '77 is looking forward to becoming next year's big cheeses.

Sitting alone, hunched over, motionless, staring wide-eyed downward, contemplating, thinking, reasoning. Stop. 1, 2, 3, 4 . . . his pencil skipping frantically from one word to another . . . 27, 28, 29, 30. Hesitation, thought, and again the pencil starts writing, the fingers vibrating quickly, stopping briefly after each word. Come on world, I'll take ya on.

Real class; what did you expect?

This year George Mason's AFS Club hosted its first short exchange trip. Over forty students and sponsors came from Concord, Massachusetts. After a long and tiring bus ride, they arrived at G.M. on a Thursday evening.

The students from Concord visited our school and classes on Friday. They toured Washington on Friday and Saturday, and some even made it into Georgetown. Many attended the school play and the Carnival.

Sunday was a trip to the National Zoo or back into D.C. to see some more of our famous sites.

Then on Monday morning, they prepared themselves to return home. Last minute pictures were taken to remember the occasion. Addresses were exchanged in the hope that new friendships would be continued. Then came, of course, the unwanted good-byes.

As the bus pulled away from the school, we realized that those last few days were ones we would all remember.
